

We ask the FCC to please delay its decision for another 30 days and have more public hearings, at which Chairman Powell will appear. This is too important a matter to be passed without further consideration and public input. Although the report is overdue, another 30 days will not seriously hinder the report and since the airways belong to the public, they should have their say.